Carol Concert

Huge congratulations to our wonderful choir and performers who represented our school superbly at our carol concert at St Leonard's church on Wednesday. Our performers read a selection of readings and poems and the choir sang some traditional carols and some more modern classics. It was a fantastic atmosphere!

Thank you also to everyone who attended this and for the support of our community.

KS2 Pupil Awards

KASE Champions

Hope Walton – 5CB

For always maintaining an incredibly focused and engaged attitude throughout all her lessons. Hope always applies herself 110% to her learning and is an excellent role model for the rest of the class!

Hannah Young - 5OC

For always demonstrating huge amounts of resilience in lessons, particularly in Maths!

Oliver Grogan - 5MP

For always being amazing in his work and showing great resilience and determination. Oliver applies 100% effort into all that he does to ensure great learning and progress.

Theo King-Walker - 5KS

For simply focusing and working hard in lessons. You have worked hard Theo well done.

Harry Carter - 6MD

For demonstrating excellent effort and resilience in number challenge and maths lessons to learn a range of methods involving fractions and then using these methods to problem solve!

Tommy Hands - 6MH

WOW! Tommy has made an incredible improvement with his handwriting and legibility this week. It's like having a completely new child into 6MH. Through Tommy's hard work with his handwriting he is now able to produce more purposeful and responsive work throughout his lessons. Keep up this superb effort!

Csaba Kupas – 6JE

For making a real effort with his learning this week, especially in maths. You've also been really working on your handwriting and I am starting to see improvements. Well done Csaba!

Oracy Champions

Niamh McCormack – 5CB

For always getting involved during discussions in lessons she enjoys but also working hard to increase her participation in other lessons as well – great job Niamh!

Jack Nicholls – 5OC

For some brilliant contributions in lessons this week, Jack has shown that he is able to positively contribute and when he does this everybody can benefit from his wisdom.

Anna-Martha Gapper - 5MP

For always offering insightful ideas and brilliant knowledge into class and group discussions.

Evann Ashforth - 5PC

For consistently giving detailed and well thought out answers in class. He is always working hard in all lessons and produces lovely work.

Chance Layton - 6MD

For getting involved and volunteering answers more regularly, especially in reading and writing lessons!

Thomas Lakins - 6MH

Thomas has successfully articulated his points within lessons and has made fantastic contributions and in Thrive. He is able to skillfully express his opinion with evidence to support his points within a group debate. Well done, Thomas!

Chanelle King-Walker - 6JE

For getting more involved in lessons and volunteering answers more, especially in maths lessons. Not only this, you have also been volunteering to read Skellig out loud to the class. Amazing work Chanelle, keep it up!

Values Champion - Compassion awardBlake Williams – 5CB

For being a warm and smiley person at all times and for caring about each and every person he comes across. Blake brightens up Mr Bengner and Miss Johnson's days as well as looking out for his friends – a lovely attitude to have!

Megan Pearson - 5OC

For contributing well during tutor times and providing lovely reasons for the compassion task we completed this week.

Scarlett W - 5MP

For always being kind, thoughtful and considerate for those around her. Scarlett is friendly and loves to support her peers.

Freddy Richards - 5PC

For always taking the time to ask how other are feeling. There isn't a day that goes by without Freddy stopping to see if I'm ok and how my day has been. Freddy is a really polite and responsible young man.

Natasha Jones - 6MD

For always getting involved in all of our classroom assemblies and helping others by describing the importance of compassion and highlighting excellent examples of this value from around the school!

Ava Ryall - 6MH

Ava is a wonderful member of 6MH who is always looking to cheer up and support others around her. Her great sense of humour allows for others to become more relaxed and enjoy the school setting even more. Well done for keeping a smile and cheering up those around you!

Zsafia Somogyi – 6JE

For always being so kind and considerate to those around her. She always wants to help and is always thinking of those around her. Everyday she tells me to 'have a good lunch' or 'have a nice evening', which really makes my day. Thank you for being so lovely Zsafia!
